

News Articles (3)

| Title | Source | Date |
|---|-------------------------------|-----------------|
| Leaders taking knife to budget | Pensacola News Journal | 01/03/12 |

It's almost an annual rite in Tallahassee: Another year, another billion-dollar plus budget shortfall. Florida lawmakers head into their new session this month confronted by a nearly $2 billion gap. This time around, it is primarily caused by a combination of growing expenses in safety net programs ...

| | | |
|--|------------------------|-----------------|
| Florida's school program soon to be under department of agriculture | Palm Beach Post | 01/03/12 |
|--|------------------------|-----------------|

Florida's school food and nutrition program transfers to the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services from the Department of Education, effective Jan. 1. Robin Safley will serve as the director of the newly-created Office of Food, Nutrition and Wellness at the agriculture department, ...

| | | |
|---|----------------------------|-----------------|
| Florida school cafeterias could get corporate sponsors | Florida Times-Union | 01/03/12 |
|---|----------------------------|-----------------|

Your kids school cafeterias could undergo a name change with a proposed state bill that would allow local school boards to sell the naming rights to school property, including buses. The bill, filed Dec. 27 by state Rep. Irv Slosberg, D-Boca Raton, would mandate the revenue from such corporate sponso...

</td>